

Nitas / Aesiris - Übermenschlich - The Supernatural

- Known in different cultures as many different names
 - Gods = Nita
 - Angels = Aesiris (plural), Aesiri (singular)
 - Mesiha, Felagi, Apprentice of Aesiri beings
- Homeworld is Dingir Erimas
- Known in their own culture as
 - XXX
- These beings are the reason for magic to exist, that's why the General wants to eradicate all of them.
 - The general is aware that this also means that he will lose his magic powers
- In rare cases they take an apprentice which they call Felagi
 - Only one Felagi per supernatural being?
 - Similar to Moon Knight (Marvel Comics)
 - Konshu (Egyptian god) who grants supernatural powers to Moon Knight
 - Maybe once the Nitas give power to a Felagi they can only grant powers again once the Felagi dies
 - Maybe the bad General once was a Felagi and received powers from multiple Nitas
 - maybe the Nitas saw potential as he was a good person but the power corrupted him and he became too powerful
 - the Nitas then decided that no mortal being should ever receive more than one power ever again
